

Technology Assessment Notice

We provide for care that is shown to be safe and useful. We review new health care treatments. We review new procedures. The review uses up to date health data. This is called new Technology Assessment. We decide whether to pay for these things. This review means we pay when safety and value is clear. You may ask us to review new technology. The Texas Vendor Drug Program reviews medications.